

HOST YOUR OWN SKETCHY TUESDAY

Want to join in on the fun?
Here's a guide for hosting your own Sketchy Tuesday

STEP ONE

Find some sketchers.

Invite your studio, design team, best friend, office, brunch club, family or all of the above to sketch with you. Or, fly solo!

STEP TWO

Find a time and place.

At Arterra, we sketch near our studio during lunch on Tuesday. Pick a time and place that is inspiring and convenient for you. Consider seating, the weather and what you'd like to draw. Maybe you and your group would be happy to plop down on a grassy patch or you'd like a shady table at a cafe. You do you.

STEP THREE

Sketch!

Sketch, paint, draw, embroider, doodle, create.

STEP FOUR

And share.

Use #SketchyTuesday on Instagram, Facebook or Twitter, or email your sketch to nicole@arterrasf.com and we'll add your sketch to www.sketchytuesday.com, and possibly to our social media.

It's such fun to see sketches from Sketchy Tuesdays around the world, all together in one place.

Join us in September for San Francisco's Architecture and the City Festival, 2017

Every Tuesday: 12pm to 1pm

9.5 100 First Street Terrace

9.12 Art Institute Rooftop

9.19 Transamerica Redwood Park

9.26 150 California Street, Roof Terrace

Find all the info at:

<http://www.sketchytuesday.com/the-event>

Would you like to host Sketchy Tuesday with a larger group, or invite the community to sketch at your design studio or by your office? Get in touch by emailing nicole@arterrasf.com and we can share your event with the community

Brought to you by
AIA SF and Arterra Landscape Architects
www.sketchytuesday.com